Call to Worship

Hebrews 4:14-16

Leader: Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

Congregation: For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin.

Leader: Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace,

Congregation: That we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

LAKEVIEW CHRISTIAN ACADEMY Lakeview Christian Academy has employment opportunities for the 2019-2020 school year. They are looking for a high school Bible teacher, a high school Spanish teacher and a Food Service Coordinator. Please visit their website at www.lakeviewchristianacademy.com for more information.

It is the fellowship which the people of God have with the Father and with the Son that kindles the desires of others to have communion with them. I tell you, that if saints would be persuaded to spend more time and take more pains about their hearts, there would soon be such a divine excellence in their conversation that others would account it no small privilege to be with or near them.

It is the pride, passion, and worldliness of our hearts that has spoiled Christian fellowship. Why is it that when Christians meet they are often jarring and contending? Is it not because their passions are not put to death? Where do their uncharitable criticisms of each other come from, but from their ignorance of themselves? Why are they so rigid and unfeeling toward those who have fallen, if it is not because they do not feel their own weakness and liability of temptation? Why is their discourse so light and unprofitable when they meet, but because their hearts are worldly and vain? But now, if Christians would study their hearts more and keep them better, the beauty and glory of communion would be restored. They would divide no more, contend no more, censure rashly no more. They will feel right one toward another, when each is daily humbled under a sense of the evil of his own heart. ~ John Flavel

Christians today are in a precarious position as they share life with the world around them. Many around us question the validity of the Christian worldview, thus a result is the questioning of it by Christians themselves. Yet, this is nothing new! 1 Peter is a letter to encourage those under pressure by the world around them on how to see how to stand firm in their faith in Jesus Christ while responding correctly to the world. During the summer we will understand the larger picture of 1 Peter while focusing on the details of each passage weekly. Please consider joining us 15 minutes after each service in the summer to be equipped for how to handle this present age that you would glorify God in your life.
