PRESENTATION OF MOBC STATEMENT OF FAITH: NOV 10 AND 17—The Elders will be presenting a proposed new statement of faith for MOBC during the Sunday School hour on November 10 and 17. We desire for the congregation to read it ahead of time and come with any questions you may have. As was discussed in the last member's meeting, we plan to bring up for a vote the adoption of the London Baptist Confession of 1689 as a new statement of faith.

MOBC MEMBERSHIP CLASS—Are you interested in becoming a member of MOBC? If so, the Elders will be hosting a new member's class on Saturday, Nov 9 from 9a-3p. This is the first step in becoming a member of MOBC. You will learn the Biblical foundation for membership, our history, what we believe, and how ministry functions. Please consider joining us for this important step in the membership process. Lunch is provided. Email Pastor Paul to sign up.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD 2024—Please consider packing a shoebox (or more than one) for a child that might not get anything else for Christmas this year. Also, please consider volunteering to help collect shoeboxes during Collection Week (November 18-25). There is a sign-up on the welcome desk as you enter the sanctuary. Any questions can be directed to Erik Larson. Thank you!

THE ENERGIZERS ARE TAKING ITEMS FOR OCC—There is a box at the Welcome Center to drop off items for the Operation Christmas Child collection. Energizers will be packing boxes on Thursday, November 21 and would love to have more donations. Please go to OCC's website to see what we can accept.

MEN'S GAME NIGHT—The men of MOBC will be coming together for Men's Game Night on Friday, November 8th at 5:30pm. Please consider joining us for this time of fellowship.

YOUTH GROUP THANKSGIVING MEAL—The youth of MOBC will be meeting in the youth group area for our annual Thanksgiving meal on Wednesday, November 20th from 6-7:30pm. Please let Kale know if your child will be attending this event so he can plan for food.
